TSC Real Estate wins the Living & Care EXPO award in the category “Investor of the Year”

TSC Real Estate has won the Living & Care EXPO award in the category “Investor of the Year” for the first time. The company was nominated by the trade magazine Care Invest published by the Vincenz network and the specialist advisor Terranus Consulting. In a live vote amongst delegates to the Altenheim Expo fair in Berlin, this year’s winner TSC Real Estate was able to see off challenges from other nominees such as Cureus and the AIF Capital Group.

“This is a great recognition of our work in the field of healthcare real estate over the last few years. So a very big thank you to all those who voted for us and our fantastic staff, without whom none of this would have been possible!” said Berthold Becker, Managing Director of TSC Real Estate after the awards ceremony.
